HIGGINSON IS HIGH GUN.

New York A. C. Champion Shows Good Form at Travers Island.

Seventeen clay rock experts gathered at the Travers Island traps yesterday, where the crisp air and good light made an enjoyable day's shooting. Of late the high gun of the day has come into vogue, that is, the honor goes to the shooter who makes the most breaks out of 100 blue rocks.

COLUMBIA'S FAST FINISH.

Just Beat Cornell at Basketball by Score of 22 to 20.

Columbia's basketball team came from behind in a whirlwind finish last night and nosed out the Cornell five by the score of 22 to 20 in one of the closest and most spectacular games ever played in the Morningside Heights gymnasium. Cornell had the lead in the greater part of the game makes the most breaks out of 100 blue rocks. The man on whom the mantle fell yesterday was B. Maynard Higginson, the club champion, who shattered 90 out of the century. In the race for the leg on the January cup Higginson made a clean string of 25 from scratch and this went a long way forward helping the grand total. For the three other events he was not so accurate but he only missed rocks which were well migh impossible. The figures for the four events were 25, 21, 21, 23.

In the regular events R. L. Spotts made two wins. These were for the legs on the larchmont man improved toward the end of the session. He broke so out of his last hundred.
